

CLACKAMAS DIVERSE EDUCATORS PATHWAYS

$2,500 - $15,000 scholarships!

Clackamas Diverse Educator Pathways is a program helps racially, culturally and linguistically diverse classified staff become teachers and fill critical gaps in Clackamas County schools.

Eligibility

- Graduated from high school or earned a GED
- Admitted to one of our partner institutions
- Meets the definition of racially, culturally or linguistically diverse as defined in Oregon law

As a program participant, you will receive

Coaching, guidance & support

Relationship-building with cohorts of peers

Individualized academic support from application to licensure

Financial support & help securing other loans, grants & scholarships

Workshops & tutoring to improve study & testing skills

Career & academic advising

Scholarships can be used at our partner higher education institutions

Questions? Contact Desi Nicodemus
dnicodemus@clackesd.org | (503) 675-4016

Learn more & apply today at clackesd.org/CDEP