COMMUNITY CELEBRATION

A FREE & FAMILY-FRIENDLY EVENT

Commemorate the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. with a special celebration at the Lake Oswego City Hall featuring:

- Katharine Phelps as emcee
- Welcome by Mayor Joe Buck
- Poetry reading by Emmett Wheatfall
- Musical performances by Alonzo Chadwick, Sr. and Jaden Yazhari
- Poetry recitation and artwork by Park Academy students
- Stomp N' Shake performance by McDaniel High School Cheer Team

Following the program, from 3-4 p.m., visit non-profit booths to learn about local volunteer opportunities and participate in a community art project with Lakewood Center for the Arts while enjoying live music by LHS Jazz ensemble.

In collaboration with African American Women of Lake Oswego & Surrounding Areas, Bahá'ís of Lake Oswego, LO for LOve, Lake Oswego School District, Lakewood Center for the Arts, and Mary's Woods.
